Jim Bennett
United Utah Party

Candidate Statement:

Jim Bennett has worked as an editorial writer and columnist with the Deseret News and is the former Marketing and Artistic Director for the Tuacahn Center for the Arts in Southern Utah. For years, he has been active in Utah politics, including managing the 2010 campaign for his father, former Senator Robert F. Bennett. He is one of the founders of the United Utah Party, which contends that the two-party system is broken and no longer represents the moderate, mainstream voters in the center.

The Lieutenant Governor initially refused his election filing, and he had to challenge the state elections office in federal court to get on the ballot. He fought the establishment and won, and he plans to do the same in Washington DC.

He is running on a reform platform of congressional term limits, market-based healthcare reform, effective public land management, and an immigration policy that best reflects the principles of Utah, a state founded by refugees.

Jim earned a Bachelor of Fine Arts from the University of Southern California and a Master of Business Administration from Brigham Young University. He lives in Sandy with his wife, Laurel, and their five children.

Joe Buchman
Libertarian Party

Candidate Statement:

In this "special election" Utah has have the opportunity to do something truly special - END the cozy confidence of the two old, too old parties! Fire a shot of principled Liberty across their bows.

Unlike the two old, too old party candidates (who will be pressured by their national party superiors to begin running for reelection in 2018 the moment they arrive in DC) I promise to devote 100 percent of my term in office to serving the Third District of Utah with the principles of LIBERTY that the Libertarian Party has stood for since its founding. Taxation is theft - we must not only turn the tide of ever increasing taxing, regulating and spending - we must act now to reduce it to an absolute minimum. This is the NAP - NonAggression Principle. The second principle of Liberty is "self-ownership" - meaning the government has NO BUSINESS in what you do peacefully in private.

I’ll be a new "Ron Paul from Utah" advocating for Peace, Personal Liberty, dramatic reductions in spending and taxing, and for a Legacy every voter in Utah can be proud of - ending the dominance of 100 years of this two-too-old-party mess.

Kathie Allen
Democratic Party

Candidate Statement:

Dr. Kathie Allen has been a family doctor in Utah for thirty years. When former Representative Jason Chaffetz disrespected his own constituents at a town hall in February, she decided to run for Congress to do a better job.

Dr. Kathie believes that every American deserves health care and that every family deserves paid family leave. She uses facts to solve problems and will hold government accountable to the people. She supports the preservation of public lands and the legalization of cannabis for legitimate medical uses. She knows that our national deficit is being driven by rising health care costs, and that fixing health care will fix our deficit as well. And as the former owner of her own medical practice, she knows how to eliminate burdensome regulations on the small businesses that create American jobs.

"As a doctor, I look at the facts, diagnose the problem, and find solutions. I tell the truth. And that's exactly what I'll do as your Congresswoman."

Jason Christensen
Independent American Party

Candidate Statement:

Unlike so many politicians that goes to Washington and becomes lost to the muck that is the swamp, I have a completely revolutionary idea. That is I want to live and serve in the district.

I want to hold far more town halls and teleconferences with my friends (constituents) than we have ever seen in the district. I also think that it is time to push for an internet way of serving in Washington. Basically start convening Congress via secured internet connection, instead of being live on the floor. This would include drafting and submitting legislation, committee hearings, and floor debates. This would save us as a people thousands, as well as boost instant communication with the people that we as Congress serves.

Lastly because of partisan politics, and all of their rhetoric. Being independent, I can reach out towards the democrats on matters of Constitutional issues that they would agree with. I can also reach across the aisle with republicans on the constitutional issues that concerns them as well. It's time for we as Independent Americans to retake the People's House!

Candidate Statement:

I’m John Curtis, the Republican Nominee in Utah’s 3rd District.

As the two-term mayor, I’m proud of the work we’ve done in Provo. As a city, we revitalized Downtown Provo, brought affordable internet access through Google Fiber, and preserved Rock Canyon for future generations, all while cutting the size and spending of city government. I think that we can take our success to the rest of Utah’s Third Congressional District.

As a former business owner, I understand what it means to work to make payroll and balance a budget. We built our company, Action Target, into a multimillion dollar business right here in the 3rd District. I hope to work with local businesses to create an environment suited to growing companies and creating jobs.

As a husband, father, and neighbor, I know firsthand how important relationships are to the people we serve. Our communities are important, and I will work to represent the needs and concerns of all Utahns, putting our needs above special interests in Washington D.C.

Join me in taking our Utah values to Washington D.C., to work together and to get things done.

Candidate Statement:

Sean Whalen is a father, entrepreneur, business owner, motivational speaker, and registered Republican who ran as an unaffiliated candidate to ensure an independent, conservative voice on our November ballot. He’s not a professional politician, does not come from a wealthy family, or have a family deeply rooted in politics. He speaks his mind and does the right thing, regardless if it’s popular or “politically correct”.

Sean’s platform is simple: He’s going to punch D.C. in the face by passing term limits, tax reform, fixing healthcare, and ultimately getting the federal government out of our personal lives and pockets.

This election we have a choice. We can send another step-stone, insider politician who says we need to “work together” with those in D.C., only to receive more hidden taxes, fees, debt, and government in our lives in return. Or we can choose something different. If you’re tired of the bull in Washington, do something about it by voting for Sean Whalen.
