RE: Count My Vote citizens’ initiative petition application

Lieutenant Governor Cox,

We, the sponsors of the new Count My Vote citizens’ initiative petition, herewith deliver our application for an initiative as required by Utah law.

This initiative’s purpose is to institute direct primary elections that will improve voter participation, enhance candidates’ access to the ballot, require nominees to show a sufficiently broad level of support, and ensure the integrity and reliability of the election process.

While Utah’s political parties should always remain free to hold caucuses and conventions, direct primary elections should serve as the only mechanism through which a candidate for elective office may appear with political party affiliation on the general-election ballot. This issue has been debated publicly for many years, but now is the time for the People of Utah to decide.

We appreciate your service and look forward to your response.

DIRECT PRIMARY ELECTION

LONG TITLE

General Description:

This Initiative amends Title 20A (Election Code) of the Utah Code to designate a direct vote of the people in a regular primary election as the sole method of selecting political-party nominees to appear as such on the general-election ballot. Specifically, this Initiative does so by repealing provisions related to qualified political parties and retaining the direct primary election process that exists in current law for registered political parties to nominate candidates.

Statement of Intent and Subject Matter:

The caucus-convention method of nominating political candidates in Utah elections is outdated and dysfunctional. Many political party voters are unable to participate due to logistical constraints and other obstacles. Because only a small group is empowered, a party’s broader membership is disenfranchised and overall voter participation is discouraged. While political parties should always remain free to hold caucuses and conventions, a direct primary election should serve as the only mechanism through which a candidate for elective office may appear with political party affiliation on the general-election ballot.

This issue has been debated publicly for many years, but now is the time for the People of Utah to decide. This initiative’s purpose is to institute a direct primary election that will improve voter participation, enhance party candidates’ access to the primary-election ballot, require political party nominees to show a sufficiently broad level of support in order to appear with party affiliation on the general-election ballot, and ensure the integrity and reliability of the election process through a uniformly administered state-run primary election.

Highlighted Provisions:

This Initiative:
• Provides for a direct primary election to serve as the only mechanism through which political-party nominees for Utah’s federal-, state-, and county-level public offices are selected and subsequently featured on the general election ballot with political party affiliation;

• Enacts changes related to definitions, election dates, and other provisions necessary to implement a direct primary election;

• Reduces required signature thresholds for candidates to access the ballot in direct primary elections;

• Repeals provisions associated with the caucus-convention method of nominating political candidates;

• Adjusts deadlines and filing requirements associated with candidate ballot access;

• Establishes a run-off election, when necessary; and

• Enacts a severability clause.
