Qualifications:

I am running for County Council because everything I care about and have worked for in this community in some way ties back to County government. I want strong core philosophies to guide each County decision:

- Educate and Safeguard our Children
- Protect our Environment
- Strengthen our Economy
- Plan for our Growth

I was born and raised in District 4, attending Highland High. After receiving a degree in mass communications (magna cum laude) from the University of Utah, I graduated from the University of California at Davis Law School. I was a partner and litigator in San Francisco, practicing consumer protection law, before returning to Holladay with my husband to raise our children.

I will bring to the County Council my work ethic, honed over a lifetime of community service to agencies such as:

- Appointed by Gov. Huntsman to Court of Appeals Judicial Nominating Commission and Board of Trustees of Central Utah Water Conservancy District
- No! Coalition (Gov. Leavitt's bipartisan coalition opposed to high-level nuclear waste)
- Salt Lake County Convention Facilities Advisory Board
- Asian Association of Utah
- Various local and national bar associations

I pledge my integrity, civility, and tenacity full time to the citizens of Salt Lake County.
