Qualifications:(Statement of up to 200 words]

After 16 years of the incumbent, it is time to have a new voice representing you in Davis School Board Precinct 1. With all three of my children in the public school system, I am keenly aware of how the District's decisions affect each child, individually. I believe the school district needs to be more transparent and involve the community in open and honest discussions, continue to recruit and retain high quality teachers, uphold the highest standard of research-based best practices in education, respond to substantial increase in growth and finally, ensure dependable fiscal responsibility and accountability to taxpayers.

My Community Involvement and Background

- Co-founder and Immediate Past President of the Utah Branch of the International Dyslexia Association
- Worked with the Utah State Office of Education to promote early identification and intervention for struggling readers
- Orchard Elementary Community Council
