

JUSTICE COURT JUDGES

No photograph available

Judge Ken Armstrong was appointed to the Santa Clara Justice Court in February 2000. Before his appointment he served in the US Army and received a Bronze Star Medal while serving in South Viet Nam. In 1976 he graduated Cum Laude from Metropolitan State College in Denver, Colorado with a degree in Criminal Justice and Outdoor Recreation. He worked as a law enforcement officer and firefighter for the next 22 years. In 2006 he was awarded a Certificate in Legal Studies from the Administrative Office of the Courts. From 2002 until 2009 he served as education Director for Justice Courts in Utah's Fifth Judicial District.

Judge

Kenneth E. Armstrong

Santa Clara Municipal
Justice Court
(Washington County)

Judge Armstrong's compliance with performance standards is as follows:

- 1) Had fewer than the maximum allowable cases held under advisement.
- 2) Had at least 30 hours of continuing judicial education annually during his term.
- 3) Mentally and physically fit for office.
- 4) In substantial compliance with the Code of Judicial Conduct.

Judge Shadrach C. Bradshaw was appointed to the Beaver County Justice Court in January 1995. He owned and operated a dairy farm until 2003. Since that time, he has served as the recreational director for Beaver City. For more than 30 years, Judge Bradshaw has been active in Cub Scouts and Boy Scouts and has volunteered for many community youth programs.

Judge Bradshaw's compliance with performance standards is as follows:

- 1) Had fewer than the maximum allowable cases held under advisement.
- 2) Had at least 30 hours of continuing judicial education annually during his term.
- 3) Mentally and physically fit for office.
- 4) In substantial compliance with the Code of Judicial Conduct.

Judge

Shadrach Bradshaw

Beaver County Justice
Court Beaver Precinct
(Beaver County)

Judge Lee L. Bunnell was appointed to the bench in January 1984 as a part-time judge for Washington City. At that time Washington was a city of 4,000 people. He has seen it grow to about 40,000 at present. The court started at a class IV, and is now a class II. He has ruled on approximately 40,000 cases in 26 years. Judge Bunnell graduated from Dixie College with an Associate Degree, then from Weber State College with a B.S. degree, then from University of Utah with a Masters of Science degree. He taught six years in public schools, first Weber High School in Ogden, then Rancho High School in Las Vegas. He then was appointed Head Football Coach at Dixie College in St. George. After coaching for nine years he resigned as coach and accepted a position in the Science department at Dixie College where he taught Biology and Math. Later he was appointed Dean of the department of Science and Math. Judge Bunnell retired in 2005 after thirty-eight years of teaching. Judge Bunnell is married to Carol (Larson), and just celebrated 46 years of marriage. They have five children, fourteen grandchildren, and four great grandchildren.

Judge Bunnell's compliance with performance standards is as follows:

- 1) Had fewer than the maximum allowable cases held under advisement.
- 2) Had at least 30 hours of continuing judicial education annually during his term.
- 3) Mentally and physically fit for office.
- 4) In substantial compliance with the Code of Judicial Conduct.

Judge

Lee Bunnell

Washington Municipal
Justice Court
(Washington County)